

On Sunday, 6/22/25, I'll be hosting a quick photo pop-up at my studio to help raise money for a family going through the unimaginable.

Amanda Hoffmaster — even if you don't know her — is the kind of woman who would give the shirt off her back (and probably her shoes too) if you needed them. She recently lost the love of her life, Dave, a man who lived for his family and especially his grand-babies. He was the guy who went all out just to make people smile — the one you could always count on.

To help ease some of the burden on their family, I'll be offering one single, professionally edited photo for $20.

Please note: This is not a full session or mini session — just a quick photo. Your image will be emailed to you within 48 hours.

Stop by anytime between 12:00PM - 5:00PM - No need to book ahead, I'll be capturing one image per person/family. If you can't make it, you are welcome to donate anyway, just scan or click the QR code below.

All proceeds will go directly to Amanda and her family to help with funeral costs and unexpected expenses

If you can't make it but still want to help, even a share or a prayer is appreciated more than you know. Thank you so much for showing up for good people when they need it most. - Chels
